Lord, Teach Me to Pray

John P. Kennon

"When Heaven Teaches Earth to Pray"

Introduction

“Pray that God prays through you—bringing His will from heaven into your life.”

Prayer is more than routine. It's not just a discipline—it’s a dialogue. A relationship. A rhythm. A response to God's voice.

Many believers don’t lack passion—they lack direction. They burn with desire but need practical direction. After nearly 30 years of walking with God, I came to a season where I had no prayers. I had hunger—but the prayer life was sucked out of me. And right there, the Lord met me, in what felt like a lifeless moment. This message was born from that moment. Let what follows stir your spirit, anchor your faith, and draw you into deeper intimacy with God.

Don’t just read—pray. Don’t just listen—respond.

Hebrews 11:1 – “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”
Hebrews 11:6 – “Without faith it is impossible to please Him…”

Prayer without faith is just noise. But prayer spoken in faith? That’s where miracles begin.

Prayer Is Labor, but Not in Vain

John 6:27 – “Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life…”

True labor in the Lord is anchored in prayer. Yes, it involves trial and error. Some are blessed with mentors. Others are simply pulled deeper by a divine hunger—a God-given ache to know Him more.

I don’t present this as someone who has mastered prayer, but as one still learning, still longing, still listening. A student. A son. A vessel.

The Lord’s Prayer: Heaven’s Blueprint

To pray “Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven” isn’t just bold—it’s divine alignment. It's not only possible—it's invited. But it must be done God’s way. Jesus didn’t give us a script—He gave us a structure. A spiritual framework. A heaven-born blueprint.

Matthew 6:5–15 – The Lord’s Prayer is heaven’s architecture, forever settled in glory.

Each phrase aligns us with the heart of God:

Relationship – Our Father

Worship – Hallowed be Thy Name

Authority – Thy Kingdom Come

Surrender – Thy Will Be Done

Provision – Give us this day…

Grace – Forgive us…

Mercy – As we forgive others…

Guidance – Lead us…

Deliverance – Deliver us from evil…

Glory – For Thine is the Kingdom…

By Grace Through Faith

Ephesians 2:4–10
We are saved by grace, through faith—not of works, but as God's workmanship, created for good works ordained before time.

Final Invitation

As you walk through these ten chapters, slow down. Linger. Listen.

Let the Lord's Prayer open up a river of life—unceasing, deep, and overflowing with His presence. This is not just a study. It's an encounter. Let heaven pray through you. This is a faithful prayer ever present help in all times in all seasons and for always.

Relationship: 'Our Father'

Prayer begins not with performance, but with relationship. Jesus opens the Lord's Prayer not with demands, but with identity:
"Our Father…" – the invitation to approach God not as a distant deity, but as a loving, present, personal Father.

Prayer Is...

A relationship—not a ritual

A rhythm—a daily heartbeat of connection

A response—to God's voice, not just our needs

Matthew 6:5–15 – Jesus anchors the model prayer in relationship: "Our Father which art in heaven…"

How Do I Relate to God as My Father?

You are not defined by your past, your shame, or your failures.
You are defined by sonship—a new identity forged in Christ.
