A Prayer Journal

Compiled by John P. Kennon
Manuscript excerpt

A Prayer Journal

Compiled by Bro. John Kennon
April 18th, 2025

INTRODUCTION

A guide to walk in grace, by faith, and with Kingdom authority

This journal is a simple yet powerful compilation of Spirit-led prayers—crafted to guide us in walking with grace through faith, while stepping boldly into dominion, power, and authority in the Kingdom of God.

These prayers are not just words, they are tools of transformation. They are declarations to help us align with His identity, manifest His work, and reflect His glory as laborers prepared for the harvest field.

Many believers don’t struggle with sincerity in prayer; they struggle with strategy.
Not with mere simple desire—but with direction.
Not with merely fiery passion—but with practical guidance.

This journal is designed to help change that.
May these prayers serve as a map for your soul, a voice for your spirit, and a bridge between you and the heart of God.

Let us pray—

not as beggars, but as sons and daughters.
Not from fear, but from faith.
Not to perform, but to pursue.

And in doing so, may we grow deeper in relationship with the Lord, rooted in His Word, and ready for His return

HUMBLE YOURSELVES

Joh_15:26 “But I will send you the Advocate—the Spirit of truth. He will come to you from the Father and will testify all about me.

Joh_16:13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future.

God,

Grant me grace—grace not just to be saved, but to understand You. To know Your Word. To grasp what is holy and hidden, sacred and true. I cannot do this without You. My mind is limited. My heart is finite. But You, O Lord, are infinite in wisdom, rich in mercy, and perfect in knowledge. Shine the light of Your Spirit into my understanding. Open the eyes of my heart,

Jesus. Illuminate what has been darkened. Reveal what flesh cannot teach. You are the Author and Finisher of my faith. So be the Teacher of my soul. Not by intellect alone, but by revelation—A work of the Spirit, not of man.

Let every veil be torn. Let every tradition bow. Let every false idea fall to the ground. Grant me access to divine wisdom, not earned, but gifted through Your Spirit. Let the Word become alive in me—Not just read but revealed. And as You open the Scriptures, let me see You, Lord Jesus— The Living Word, the Holy One, the Everlasting God.

I receive Your wisdom.

I receive Your truth.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

MAKE US A HOUSE OF PRAYER

Matthew 21:13 – "My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves."

Jesus entered the temple with a whip, not a clipboard. He came to cleanse, not compromise.

"Today, I don't come with pretense—I come with humility. I speak not as one who has mastered this, but as one being mastered by it.

Jesus, I admit it openly: I've failed at this. I've stumbled in the places where You've called me to stand strong. I've let unhealthy habits, broken mindsets, and dysfunctional patterns linger far too long. But I'm not hiding—I'm here, asking You boldly.

Give me a spirit of boldness—not just to speak, but to be transformed. Strip away everything in me that doesn't reflect You. Let Your grace flood every part of me—my thinking, my emotions, my habits.

Make me a man of prayer—not in word only, but in posture, in priority, and in power. Conform me to Your image, Jesus. Not just a better version of myself—but a living, breathing reflection of You.

I don't just want to teach about prayer—I want to become prayer in motion."

This is meant to be spoken slowly, with pauses to let the weight of each phrase settle.