How Were you Baptized for Kids

The Great Commission – A Pentecostal Bible Study for Kids

This lesson will teach children The Great Commission, Baptism in Jesus' Name, Faith, and Obedience from a Pentecostal perspective. It will emphasize the importance of Jesus' name baptism, receiving the Holy Ghost with evidence of speaking in tongues, and living a Spirit-filled life.

Title: "Ben Learns About The Great Commission"

Illustration: Jesus is surrounded by children, teaching them about His love and His plan for them.
Story: Ben was an excited little boy who loved hearing Bible stories at church. One day, his Sunday school teacher told them about Jesus' last words before going to heaven. Jesus told His disciples something very important:

"Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved…" (Mark 16:15-16, NKJV)

Ben's teacher explained that this was called The Great Commission. It was Jesus' special command to tell everyone about Him, baptize them in His name, and teach them to follow Him. Ben felt a fire in his heart. He wanted to obey Jesus!

Illustration: Ben shares with his friend, Anna, about Jesus and salvation.
Story: After church, Ben met his best friend, Anna, at the park. He remembered what Jesus said, so he told her, "Anna, did you know that Jesus loves us so much that He died for us? And He wants us to follow Him and be baptized in His name!"

Anna's eyes grew big. "What do you mean, baptized in His name?" she asked.

Ben told her about what Peter preached in the Bible on the Day of Pentecost:

"Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." (Acts 2:38, NKJV)

Anna was amazed. She had never heard that before. She wanted to learn more!

Story: A few weeks later, Anna decided she wanted to obey Jesus. She repented of her sins and got baptized in Jesus' name just like the Bible teaches. The moment she came up from the water, she felt different—clean, happy, and full of peace.

Ben was so happy for his friend! He knew that Anna was ready for the next step—receiving the Holy Ghost.

Illustration: Anna praying and receiving the Holy Ghost with raised hands.
Story: That night, at a children's prayer service, Anna lifted her hands and prayed with all her heart. Suddenly, she felt God's presence fill her, and she began to speak in a new language! She had received the Holy Ghost just like in the Bible (Acts 2:4).

Ben and Anna were so happy. They had followed The Great Commission—they had believed in Jesus, obeyed His command to be baptized in His name, and received His Spirit. Now, they were ready to go and tell others so they, too, could experience this Pentecostal power!

Memory Verse: "And you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me…" (Acts 1:8, NKJV)

Prayer: Dear Jesus, thank You for giving us the gift of the Holy Spirit! Help us to obey Your Word, be baptized in Your name, and tell others about You. Fill us with Your power so we can live for You. Amen.

Introduction: What is the Great Commission?

The Great Commission is the special mission that Jesus gave to His followers before He returned to heaven. He told them to:

Preach the gospel – Tell the world about Jesus.

Baptize believers – In His name for the remission of sins.

Teach obedience – Follow everything Jesus commanded.

Receive the Holy Spirit – Be filled with power to be witnesses.

This was not a suggestion—it was a command! Jesus wants everyone to hear about His salvation plan and experience Acts 2:38 for themselves.
