Source and Supply

John P. Kennon
Manuscript excerpt

Source and Supply

Adult Sunday School – April 5th, 2026

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Anchor Truth

“Having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.”
— Colossians 2:15

“O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?”
— 1 Corinthians 15:55

Teaching Opener

“The message of the cross is this—Jesus Christ defeated death…hell…and the grave.

He rose again…

‘And led captivity captive…’
— Ephesians 4:8

He ascended into heaven having already defeated the first enemy—death.

That means death no longer has the power
to keep us from Him…
to keep us from life…
or to keep us from eternity in Him.”

Building the Victory

“But the cross didn’t just deal with death…It dealt with the flesh.”

Scripture Anchor

“Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him…”
— Romans 6:6

Expansion

“Everything that you and I struggle with in this life was addressed at the cross.”

• sin
• addiction
• brokenness

• rejection
• pride
• stubbornness
• fear

“He didn’t just die for you—
He overcame what was trying to destroy you.”

Application

“Every battle you face in the flesh
Jesus has already faced and defeated.”

Key Line

“You’re not fighting for victory…you’re fighting from the position of victory.”

Final Anchor

“But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”
— 1 Corinthians 15:57

Source and Supply — His Strength Made Perfect in Weakness

Key Text

“And He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.”
— 2 Corinthians 12:9

Lesson Big Idea

Many believers are exhausted not because the trial is too heavy — but because they are trying to be the source.

God never designed you to be the generator.
He designed you to be connected.

When we attempt to power our Christian walk through our own grit, discipline, knowledge, or consistency — we dry out.

When we learn to work within brokenness instead of trying to fix or escape it — we discover that weakness is not the enemy.

Independence is.

I. Weakness Is Not the Problem — Disconnection Is

Paul did not simply pray for removal — he learned surrender.

Instead of hiding weakness, he boasted in it. Why?

Because weakness exposes the true source.

When you hide grief…
When you suppress pain…
When you pretend strength…

You disconnect yourself from the only One who sustains you.

“Without me ye can do nothing.”
— John 15:5

A branch does not strain to bear fruit.
It abides.

II. Biblical Characters Who Learned This Revelation

These men and women discovered that righteousness without dependence is dangerous.

1. Job

Lost everything externally.
But the real exposure was internal presumption.

He moved from: “I have done everything right.”

To: “I had heard of You… but now my eye sees You.”
(Job 42:5)

His repentance was relational, not moral.

Layer by layer, God peeled back each confidence:

Job 1–2 – External stripping (wealth, children, health)
Job 3–31 – Defense of integrity
Job 32–37 – Confrontation
Job 38–41 – Divine displacement

GOD’S QUESTIONS TO JOB (NLT)

Job 38–41 — Teaching Card

“Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?” (Job 38:4)
You were not there.

“Who kept the sea inside its boundaries?” (Job 38:8)
God controls what looks uncontrollable.

“Have you ever commanded the morning to appear?” (Job 38:12)
You do not control time.

“Have you explored the depths of the sea?” (Job 38:16)
You do not understand everything.

“Where does light come from?” (Job 38:19)
You experience it, but you do not define it.

“Have you seen the storehouses of the snow?” (Job 38:22)
You do not govern the earth.