SERMON ON THE MOUNT

The sermon on the mount in Mat. 5 speaks of “blessed” are they which are …… you fill in the blank.

- Poor in Spirit
- Those that mourn
- Hungry and Thirsty for righteousness

All have one characteristic common in each beatitude.

- Brokenness
  - The breaking of our will to embrace his
  - The dying out to our ways to embrace his
  - The denial of ourselves to follow his

This is the essence of this message.

The blessings are in brokenness.

Psa 71:20 You have allowed me to suffer much hardship, but you will restore me to life again and lift me up from the depths of the earth.

- The Psalmist writes of suffering
- Hardship
- Yet, hope
- Because of experience we find Hope in future restoration no matter how low we find ourselves

Even tho the outside seems broken there can still be light shining bright on the inside.

The writer of this psalm speaks of intimate knowledge that

- Broken things have a use too.

- Even when life leaves you broken,
- unwanted and
- feeling unloved.
- No matter what
    - Those shattered pieces have a place
    - in Gods masterful hands.
    - In fact those pieces belong in ONLY Gods hands

EMOTION OR FAITH

- Trying to conquer things by the strength of your own emotion doesn't make you free it enslaves you to dealing with everything emotionally.
- Until there remains no emotion strong enough to give you victory
- Its time to have faith. Just as the Lord brought Simon Peter a catch after toiling all night and nothing. God will always come through right on time.

- You have been called by the King of Kings
    - and the Lord of Lords,
    - the great I am the first the last
    - the beginning and the end
    - the great I am.
    - You are His and
    - He is yours.
- Its time for the gifts and calling he has placed on you to be used to its fullest potential.

TRUST OR FEAR

Faith and the truth are the only thing that makes you free. By God's grace given to you by the faith you let change your beliefs gives you victory

Trusting in the hands of God to fix things and put you back together will always be the greatest decision of your life.

IN SPITE OF THE BROKENESS

There are a few examples of folks that have dealt with brokenness, in many ways relate to our lives today.

Both the rich and the poor share in this one thing. Grief and loss and heartache and sorrow weigh down both equally. It levels the playing field if you will.

Act_27:1-44. (On the whole chapter.) Paul and His Fellow Voyagers—a Comparison and a Contrast.

I. The comparison.—

1. Partakers of a common humanity.
2. Bound for a common port.
3. Exposed to a common peril.
4. Subjects of a common deliverance.

II. The contrast.—

1. Grace and nature. With the exception of Luke and Aristarchus, Paul was probably the only Christian among them.
2. Discernment and dullness. Paul's forecast of the storm, and the want of insight on the part of the centurion, the owner, the pilot and crew (Act_27:9-12).
3. Faith and unbelief. Paul's confidence that no lives would be lost: their doubt of the correctness of this assertion (Act_27:22-26).
4. Courage and despair. Paul's intrepidity throughout: their universal faintheartedness (Act_27:31-33).
5. Piety and wickedness. Paul's prayers for (Act_27:24), and exhortations to (Act_27:25; Act_27:33-34) them; the baseness of the sailors (Act_27:30), and the inhumanity of the soldiers (Act_27:42).

III. The conclusion.

1. That all are not alike because they happen to sail in the same boat.
2. That common experiences do not always produce on different men the same effects.

3. That circumstances which call forth the nobility of the good frequently serve to evoke the meanness of the base.
4. That goodness makes the best leaders of men.

- Paul Deals with This Trial Dealing with a Broken Vessel
    - Paul deals with the physical
    - Spiritual
    - And Emotional brokenness
- Yet He provides leadership to those around him

LIFE AND RELATIONSHIPS

- FROM ONE GENERATION TO ANOTHER YOU CAN WIND UP PASSING DOWN THE UNHEALED TRAUMA.
- HEALING IS WHERE THE CYCLE STOPS.
- HEALING IS WHERE PEACE IS FOUND.
- HEALING BEGINS WHEN YOU TRUST IN THE HEALER.
- THE LORD.
- NOT YOUR OWN ABILITIES OR THE DOCTORS OPINION OR THE THERAPIST OR THE QUICK FIX.
- HEALING IS FOUND WHEN YOUR FOUND BROKEN AND YOU CAN LOOK NOWHERE ELSE BUT UP!

THE PRUNING PROCESS

- To a tree the pruning can be a drastic change to its entire nature size shape and or subtle removal of unwanted branches
    - This can seem overwhelming or cruel.
    - Nevertheless no matter how drastic or subtle you prune a tree if it has good roots, it forces the tree to grow in height width breadth and depth in order to better sustain life
- The same is with God, he prunes us to clean things up and to make us stronger in him.

Isa_38:16 Lord, your discipline is good, for it leads to life and health. You restore my health and allow me to live!

THE PRUNING OF OUR SPIRIT

- Sometimes God allows things to grow in us that come out unexpectedly and show their nasty face.
- Unbelief, unresolved anger, unrepentant sin, unforgiving attitudes, deep hidden spitefulness. People's harshness and offenses
- These things get into our spirit and can defile ours and hinder the move of God in our life.

RESTORATION IN SPITE OF THE BROKENESS

- God will work to allow us to fall flat on our faces to show us we have things to work on that are not pleasing to him.
- That we have allowed certain things in our heart that isn't pleasing to him.
- God is a jealous god and wants all our heart mind body and soul.
- Don't make areas in your heart and mind off limits to God.
- God allows people in our lives to cause and wreak havoc, but
- He also brings people in our lives that being Christs redeeming love and healing and restoration.

Psa_71:21 You will restore me to even greater honor and comfort me once again.
